II. Jack Cruise wrote an article about Amy Chua's work, "Tiger Mother." Here are what the readers thought about Jack's article.

Tiger Mother

Jack Cruise is right by saying that Amy Chua goes too far in his article "Tiger Mother," December 2010. My mother is another Amy Chua. I can't go shopping with my friends or be in a school play. She asks me to be number one on each test and in each contest. On weekends, I have to stay home practicing the piano and the violin. Because of her teaching, I've been the star in my school. But I don't have real friends to share my mood (心情) with. My mom is proud of me, but I am not happy at all.

I feel sad for Amy Chua's two daughters. If I had a mom like Amy Chua, I would run away from home. Mothers should let their children do what they love. By being too demanding, they would make their children "Chicken Kids," who are afraid of being themselves. I'm on Jack's side.

Albert Eu, Malaysia

I don't agree with Jack Cruise. Although Amy Chua's daughters might not have a happy childhood, they will become happy people who have a successful career. Their mother is helping them get ready for their future. I thank my mother. She had me learn the piano when I was a child, and now I have something to show at parties.

Elsa, Japan

- ( ) 3. What is Jack Cruise's article most likely (可能的) about?
(A) What children should not do.
(B) How to have a successful career.
(C) What to do with problem children.
(D) How a mother teaches her children.
- ( ) 4. Who likes Amy Chua's way of bringing up (養育) her children?
(A) Jack. (B) Lisa. (C) Albert. (D) Elsa.
- ( ) 5. A demanding teacher is most likely to _____.
(A) give a lot of rules (B) teach very well
(C) be very lazy (D) let students do what they like
